

Call for Submissions on a Restorative Recognition Scheme for the Former Residents of the Mother and Baby Homes and County Homes.

As part of its response to the publication of the Final Report of the Mother and Baby Homes Commission of Investigation, the Government of Ireland has committed to the establishment of a Restorative Recognition Scheme including financial recognition and a form of enhanced medical card.

The Government has engaged OAK, a consultancy company, to facilitate a consultation process to find out from all interested parties what they want from a Restorative Recognition Scheme.

You can tell us what you think should be included in this scheme in two ways:
