Mary Kelly, Playwright & Actress

Mary is a seven time produced and twice published playwright. She is a former Gate Theatre actress and had toured the world with Big-Telly Theatre Company's production of "The Little Mermaid". Her TV and radio experience include "Parked" with Colm Meaney, "The Hit List" with John Boorman, Stephen Rea and Brendan Gleeson, The Clinic and Fair City. Since moving to Berlin, Mary has performed in numerous English Theatre Berlin productions, she has performed with BERT (Berlin English Repertory Theatre) in A Christmas Carol at Theater Forum Kreuzberg and has also performed her own plays at International Theatre Frankfurt, English Theatre Berlin and Theater Forum Kreuzberg. Mary's plays have been inspired mainly by Ireland and Irish people. When living there she received Irish Arts Council research bursaries to interview Irish people around her themes.
