

THE IRISH EMBASSY BURSARY PROGRAMME

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR SCHOLARSHIPS TO IRELAND

*Application deadline: 19th February 2018

The Irish Embassy to Hungary is now accepting applications for its Bursary Programme

The Bursary Programme was established by the Embassy of Ireland in Hungary, the Irish Hungarian Business Circle (IHBC), and by the Forum of Scholars of Irish Studies in Budapest in November 2014.

The programme was established with the goal of supporting Hungarian students studying Irish topics to visit Ireland for a summer school, research visit, or internship. The bursary award contributes towards the associated costs of the students' trip.

It is open to students from the arts, humanities, business, architecture and engineering.

2017 Winners: Mr József Papp, PhD student, ELTE and Ms Orsolya Noemi Szűcs, PhD student, Pázmány Péter University

Eligibility for the grant:

Hungarian undergraduate, graduate and post graduate students are eligible for the award and may

1. Attend a summer school in Ireland relating to the topic of their research;
2. Visit an Irish Research Institute (e.g.: National Library of Ireland, TCD Library, NUI Galway, Irish Film Institute) to carry out research;
3. Undertake an internship at an Irish business.

- Any application submitted after this date will be automatically excluded.

Official results: 14 March 2018

The Irish Embassy Bursary Programme

The Irish Embassy shall inform the successful candidate by 14 March 2018. The successful candidate will then be invited to sign a Bursary Contract with the Irish Hungarian Business Circle. In the Bursary Contract, the contracting parties (IHBC and grantee) specify how the grant will be used, and what costs will be covered. In the Bursary Contract, the grantee undertakes that with the acceptance of the award he/she shall conclude the research or attend the summer school or complete the internship that is specified in his/her work plan by the given deadline, and submit a brief report on its completion.

Each bursary grantee shall arrange all travel practicalities with TENSİ Travel Agency and the transfer of tuition fees and registration fees shall take place through IHBC. The grantee is obliged to abide by the terms of the Bursary Contract signed with IHBC. In case the grantee fails to complete the programme he/she is responsible for repaying the bursary amount.
